

SK Libraries Matters

Libraries in Saskatchewan matters because adults and kids can learn a lot of things there. This includes the history of Canada and Saskatchewan, or even the small towns where we live. The libraries in Saskatchewan give the chance for kids to learn the history throughout the world. There are a lot of things that kids can learn in Saskatchewan Libraries and this is why libraries in Saskatchewan matter.

BIO

My name is Ralph and I am in grade seven and I like playing basketball. I live in Ogema I like to play sports with my friends and I always play videogames. I am twelve year old and I have lived in the Philippines for eight years and then I moved here at Canada to live a better life.